Dear Sir.

I am trying to prepare for publication a comparison of the methods of torture or persuasion used by the Gestapo and the Japanese. From this comparison I hope to draw a picture of the difference in their mental outlook. It is though necessary for me to have full details of the tortures that various people went through. As there are practically all unfit for publication I wrote to Lt-Col Leade of the United Nations War Crimes Commission asking for his help. He informed me that the type of information I required was entirely in the form of affidavits which he was unable to
